

NAVY YARDS.

Our country has maintained a few ship yards for the accommodation of our navy. Now that wooden ships are giving place, however, to metallic ones, so costly a plant is needed to construct steam frigates or gunboats that the policy is favored of relying on private ship yards. But the country has several valuable yards in different harbors that should not be rashly sold or given up. Some of them have an extensive frontage, along which wharves of great depth can be built, and perhaps spacious grounds that can be utilized for workshops. It is, to say the least, doubtful whether we can safely wholly rely on private yards; combination may destroy competition, and put the Government at the mercy of greedy contractors. In the interest of economy, therefore, it may be needful for the country to provide the requisite plant for one yard or more to construct a ship once in awhile or in an emergency.

Great Britain favors this policy. Although she occasionally calls on the shipbuilders on the Clyde to build a massive naval ship, she maintains seven naval establishments on her coast. One of them at least, as we have been told, has seven dry docks for repairs. Mr. Whitney therefore proposes to retain our present yards and appropriate them to specific purposes. The Washington Navy Yard is to be used for the manufacture of ordnance. The huge guns to be used in our new navy, or to be employed in coast defense, are either to be manufactured or to be finished there, if the parts are made elsewhere. The Boston Navy Yard is to be used for equipment purposes, and that at Brooklyn is to be assigned to some special department.

What the exigencies of the future may demand no one can tell. For the simple police of the sea our mighty nation will need a somewhat large navy; and with the improvements in naval architecture the metallic cruiser has become an exceedingly complex structure. However advisable to construct the hulls and machines of our naval ships in private yards, therefore, there are yet many things pertaining to the equipment and outfit of a frigate that demand special skill or fidelity, and these may be best furnished in the Government's own workshops or docks. For this reason it is well for the country to retain the ownership of its present yards; while by judicious specialization it can assign to every one of them a particular branch wherein its workmen may attain the highest skill.

COUNTY TREASURER.

There is no county office that carries with it graver responsibilities than that of Treasurer. Not only must the man who is worthy of this honorable place have a character clear and clean, but he must be fitted by clerical qualifications to conduct the business of the office in all its minuteness and ponderance with clock-work precision and accuracy. To a great extent his office is the people's last and greatest safeguard against corruption throughout all other departments of the county government. If the Treasurer is watchful, if he is skillful in computation, if he is keen to detect error, it is impossible either in his own office or in any other county office for crookedness to succeed. In his hands the public treasury is safe. It is not often the case that all the consequences of dishonesty follow as a result of inefficiency, and is it not a fact that in so grave and so responsible a position, efficiency is as much a consideration to hold in view as honesty?

Such is the logic that constrained the Republican County Convention to nominate for re-election to the office of County Treasurer that man of tried and sterling worth, D. B. Boyd.

Judge Rising has been District Judge of Storey county ever since Nevada became a State. Judge McKenney has been District Judge of the judicial district composed of Lander, Churchill and Nye counties since its organization, and still holds that position. Judge Bigelow is at present District Judge of the judicial district composed of the counties of Humboldt and Elko. The three Judges are men of ability and integrity, and it is acknowledged on all sides that they have made excellent judicial officers.

Hon. William Woodburn, the nominee for Member of Congress, is now serving his second term in the Lower House of the National Legislature. He has worked faithfully to promote the interests of the people of Nevada. Mr. Woodburn is a firm friend of the silver industry, and it is safe to say that if the people re-elect him this Fall he will continue to labor assiduously for the best interests of the people of this State.

A Venerable Jurist.

Justice Field completed Wednesday a continuous term of 29 years on the bench. He became Associate Justice of Supreme Court of California October 13, 1857, and serving nearly two years was promoted to the Chief Justiceship of that State. He filled this position for nearly three years and a half, when, without solicitation, he was appointed by President Lincoln, in the Spring of 1863, as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and is ranked only in length of service by Justice Miller, who was appointed in 1862. Hence he has served on the bench of the United States Supreme Court twenty-three years and six months. It is his expectation to remain on the Supreme bench at least a year and a half longer, so that when he shall have completed a service of twenty-five years as a member of that tribunal he can retire, with the judicial labors of a quarter of a century, as a national law-giver, to his credit.

The Virginia Chronicle remarks: William M. Stewart when in the Senate voted for substituting the private creditors of the Central and Union Pacific companies for the Government as holders of the first mortgage on the roads and franchises. The railroad people now propose to escape payment of their debt to the Government altogether. The United States is asked to accept in stead of payment new bonds running for eighty years, and bearing two per cent. interest. Stewart is wanted at Washington to serve the corporations again as he served them before. The people of the State which has suffered most from the exactions and adverse discrimination of the Central Pacific is invited to send back to the Senate, in the interest of that monopoly, a man who betrayed Nevada, and who left it cursing it and everybody in it, because he was refused a third term.

The Bulletin says the Chicago and Burlington and Union Pacific Railroads have made a very low rate for round-trip tickets from the Missouri river to California for the winter. The price fixed upon is $60, tickets good for six months. The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Road has contracted with Raymond & Whitcomb at the same figures. This rate is the lowest that has ever been offered, excluding the cut rates on limited tickets during the height of the transcontinental war. Last year the lowest rate for round-trip tickets was $100.

The Republican Legislative candidates in Humboldt county are L. B. Derby, a young man who is engaged in the stock business in the northern part of the county, Dr. Powell, a well-known citizen of Paradise, and G. F. Turrittin, who was a member of the Legislature of 1885. The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we demand that the next Legislature shall pass laws in accordance with the plan known as the Nebraska plan for the election of United States Senators.

Resolved, That we are in favor of home rule for the whole world.

The Carson Index says of Mr. Stewart:

Mr. Stewart has been known to our people from Territorial days to the present time. He is closely identified with the State's early history, was twice chosen to represent the State in the United States Senate at Washington, and if elected again would be of more service to our party than any other citizen of the State. Of this there can be no honest question. He has the ability, the capacity and the desire to help us, and he will most certainly do so.

Hon. W. C. Dovey is the Republican nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Dovey is a prominent educator in Nevada, and has taught school in this State for many years past. He is thoroughly competent to fill the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

BUILDING OF THE COUNTRY.—A prominent Reno lumber man yesterday told a JOURNAL reporter that shingles were being shipped from San Francisco to Ogden for $62 per car load, while from Reno to Wells the charge was $114.

The Republicans of Lander have done well in nominating Hon. Andrew Nichols for State Senator, and J. R. Williamson, John O. Twiss and E. T. Dale for the Assembly. No county in the State will be better represented than Lander in the next Legislature.

Although no formal order to that effect has been issued, the impression prevails at the War Department that Geronimo and his fellow-captives will shortly be removed from San Antonio, Texas, to Fort Marion, Florida.

R. S. Clapp and G. H. Fish are the Republican nominees for the Assembly in Lincoln county. They are two of the best men in that county, and should be elected.

The Humboldt Republican Convention endorsed the Democratic nominees for Assessor and County Surveyor.

Resolved, That the Legislative nominees of this Convention are pledged to Ormsby county men and measures in all matters touching Ormsby county which may come before the session of the Legislature.—Ormsby County Republican Platform.

DIVIDING NYE COUNTY.

The Austin Reville returns to its mission as follows:

A few days ago as a mere matter of news, the Reville published an item about the proposed division or abolition of Nye county. At that time we did not advocate the measure, nor do we now. As a matter of fact the Reville is opposed to it because we do not believe it would be to the best interests of Lander county to have the contiguous portions of Nye added to it. But in our endeavor to give all the current news and what was being talked about we gave this gossip. We had been spoken to by a number of representative Nye county men concerning it and the substance of their views we tried to faithfully state. The Belmont Courier takes much umbrage at that article and replies in its last Saturday issue abusing Lander county and the Reville and says this paper has made a practice for years of misrepresenting Nye county and trying to injure it. We are very sorry that our esteemed contemporary has taken this view of the case and desire to state once for all that such is not the case and never has been. But when its best citizens tell us that they favor the division of the county because of its burdens and prefer a tax rate $3 60 on an assessed valuation of less than one-half the actual value to paying $2 45 on the full valuation, what must we, as disinterested outsiders, be led to think?

That the politicians of Nye county feared the division is made very plain by their inserting in each party platform a plank pledging their legislative candidates against it. This was done before the Reville article appeared and it therefore must have grown out of a knowledge of the growing discontent. In fact we know the matter was talked of in the Legislature two years ago and we also know why it was not acted upon at that time.

The Courier is mistaken when it says we favor the division. We do not, unless it is by the consent of the people of Nye county, who are the parties directly interested. Governments are organized for the convenience of the people and the burdens of taxation are compensated for by the conveniences and safety obtained by government. If Nye is wealthy enough to sustain a county government we say, in all justice, let it have it. But if it is too poor to do so, let it then what?

Nothing would please us better than to see Nye have a boom of prosperity, to see its many rich mines yielding handsomely, its farmers prosperous and its people happy. Instead of this we find its taxes barely enough to pay its officers' salaries. Facts are facts and no amount of abuse to Lander county or the Reville will change them.

WHO ARE WANTED AND WHY.

The Carson Tribune says: Wm. M. Stewart is wanted for U. S. Senator because he is better qualified than any other aspirant; because he will work for the best interests of the State and will command respect in the upper house of Congress.

William Woodburn is wanted because he has heretofore proven himself an able Congressman in doing all in his power to subvert the best interests of his constituents.

C. C. Stevenson is wanted for Governor of the State because he is worthy in every sense of the term. He is a gentleman of executive ability and one who will shrink no responsibility and will in all things do his best for the whole people and not be a laughing stock to those of other States.

H. C. Davis is wanted for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Davis is of and from the people and a man of education and executive ability.

All the nominees of the Republican party are wanted and will surely be elected because the State needs their services.

Judge Edwards will be an ornament on the Supreme bench, and thither will he go.

Hallock, Taft, Bicknell, Dornier and Harlow are wanted for the reason that they have proved themselves thoroughly qualified for the several positions.

Can any Republican find the least objection to Alexander, Jones, Dovey, Bigelow or McKenney? Then give them your earnest support.

It may seem greedy for Republicans to want all their State officials to be pure party men, but when it is considered what the Democracy of the present time signifies, it will not be so considered. Never was there a time in the history of Nevada that a Republican victory was so much needed as the present, and he who flies the party now ought to be forever ostracized from affiliation with it, and indeed, any other.

Let the warning cry, echo from one corner of the Silver State to the other: "Beware of wolves in sheep's clothing," and let every man, old and young, who desires the prosperity of his State constitute himself a committee of one to convert Democrats from the error of their way to the true principles of Republicanism. The party wants the men mentioned above, and intends to secure their services in November next.

A SUICIDAL QUARREL.

The Gazette has all along pointed out the danger as well as the folly of making the Senatorial question the great issue of the campaign. Washoe county's first interest is in her own Court House, and in obscuring that and other issues and dragging forth the remote one of a seat in the United States Senate, the party has been torn to pieces, the State ticket endangered and the control of the United States Senate, the last bulwark of Republicanism, made doubtful. Many who have been devoted to Republican principles all their lives sincerely deplore the opposition manifested by a portion of our party in this county. It is well known that the only danger to the Republican party in Washoe county is in the active hostility of the partisans of United States Surveyor General Powning, whose claims they unsuccessfully pressed as a candidate for United States Senator. Whether with his consent or not, he is in reality playing directly into the hands of Senator Fair, even more successfully than if he were a Democrat. The action of this faction, who owe so much to the Republican party, is causing a great deal of surprise throughout the State. Almost every one feels that a professional politician who asks and receives favors is subject to party discipline, and should show his soldierly qualities and devotion to principles as well when in the ranks of the defeated as when advancing to the charge.

Neither is the opposition justified by the excuse that the party candidates are objectionable, for those same candidates were forced upon the party by Senator Powning and his friends. There would have been but one ticket at the primaries if he had not given out that Washoe county's sole fight was to be a struggle for him. He was to defeat all nominations and the plan, it was openly stated, was to be to keep Washoe's delegation out of any caucus on the Senatorial question, and if a deadlock could be made, to use it for his own advantage. In common with a great many others, we thought this was asking too much. With Mr. Powning, Mr. Wren and Mr. Daggett in the caucus, there was nothing to fear from Mr. Stewart, and if he had strength to beat them all combined, he must have some good claims on the State. We felt that Washoe county had other and greater interests than to make a death struggle for any one man. Every taxpayer of ordinary ability had a right to ask as much, and we thought any one should be satisfied to have his county cast its vote for him in caucuses, and we assured General Powning that we favored Washoe giving him her five votes. He answered that the fight would not be fought that way. We felt that Judge Boardman was entitled to be heard in the State Convention as a candidate for Judge, and that Senator Stewart or any other man should be allowed to come in to help defeat Mr. Fair and then take his chances before the caucus. We told Mr. Stewart in the presence of Mr. Hamilton of Verdi, that Washoe's vote would be cast for a Washoe man if there was any before the caucus. He answered that he never had asked Washoe to pledge to him, but when it was known that the Convention would be asked to instruct against Senator Stewart, he very naturally made an effort to prevent it, and it was in that way that Mr. Powning was responsible for his taking part in the primaries. If he was justified in trying to prevent the first county in the State from giving him a black eye in the other counties where he alone was making the fight against the Democrats.

The bitter fight now going on against the Legislative ticket, can do no one any good. The project of taking a hostile delegation to Carson, will cut our county out of everything she has to ask. She will have no more influence than Kopp would have in the legislation of the Winter. If Senator Fair is continued there will be no one to back Senator Jones in the fight for silver, for a Mint, for mail routes or for more territory. Neither can it benefit Senator Powning, who can have no political future outside of the Republican party.

The above article appeared in the Reno Evening Gazette, Wednesday evening, October 13th, and inasmuch as there are several unjust reflections the Journal will answer it, although it has no particular desire to air any linen, or to do aught that would lead the public to imagine that a heart was upon a sleeve, and this will probably be the only time that personal matters will be brought forward, but in justice to our friends there can be no harm in telling the truth. We have always been opposed to the candidacy of Mr. Stewart for the Senate. We have nothing personal against that gentleman, and the stories of his bulldozing and bringing uries in the olden days when great mining interests were at stake for the rich to rob the poor, his connection with the Emma mine swindle, his identification as the paid attorneys of the corporations when in the Senate, or other deeds of omission or commission, have had no effect in forming the opinion that the candidacy of Mr. Stewart was an insult to the Republican party and to the State of Nevada, and that all honorable means should be used to defeat him and to elect some other Republican. After having twice been elected by Nevada to the United States Senate Mr. Stewart picked up his bag and baggage and deserted the State which had honored him. After an absence of fourteen years, and within six months of the election, he returns to the State, announcing before his departure from California that he was a candidate for the United States Senate. It was believed, and it is the truth, that he was sent over by the Central Pacific Railroad Company. He prepared his silver pamphlet with the idea of being a candidate for Senator from California, but was told that the railroad company could not support him from that State, and the idea was suggested to him to make the fight in Nevada. The silver pamphlet was immediately turned loose over here, and the point made that he was the man to save the State from great distress because of his learned financial views on the great question which interested Nevada. John Mackay proclaimed him a great man, and thought the State could best be served by him, and that having the support of the railroad companies, the sugar company, and all the other vile and detestable bloodsuckers and money bags of the Const, he was the only man capable of defeating Fair or any other Democrat. Tittle was in Arizona, Whitman was in San Francisco, Judge Lewis was away, Mackay himself did not want it, W. S. Hobart would not have it, and within the Republican party at home there was not a man who exactly pleased the monied powers, and the edict went forth that the fight must be made upon the carpet bag and railroad candidate from California. Stewart did some good things for the State when he was in the Senate, even though he enriched himself by his outside practices. He is a man of ability, understands, possibly, the silver question better than any other person mentioned in connection with the Senatorship, but for all that does not deserve the election. How utterly absurd and disgusting the claim that his once again becoming a citizen of Nevada was because of the love he bore our people, and because the climate was so delightful! During the period of his absence Nevada has been bought and sold a dozen times; it had gone through fire and flood; Eastern fiends had brandied on the mountain peaks the flaming, nauseating, damning epithet of "rotten borough," and every man became suspicious of his neighbor, and every man wondered if, after all, there was to be any Sunday School ticket reward of merit for trying to be decent one with the other, or if all there was in this world was simply a license to be deceitful, ungrateful, corrupt, to bend the knee that thrift might follow fawning, to stand in with Yerington, or Mackay, or the Banks, or the Central Pacific, or the "lobby," or forever be under the ban of the great men and powers, whom the people seemed to think had the "sack," and in the hollow of their hand could touch the spring and start the rolling car of Juggernaut to crush hope and life out of all who thought and felt that there might be an honest difference of opinion among persons, and that the people and other persons have some rights which were entitled to respect. The people who have lived in Nevada for the past twenty years have gradually and gradually devoted their time to improving the condition of affairs; have pruned here and there, and endeavored to have good government at the lowest possible price; have erected school houses in every hamlet and vale; have sustained churches of all denominations; have enacted good laws for the protection and preservation of life and property; have built up society, tilled the soil, watered the plains, herded the cattle, and of their money contributed to State and county governments to the end that life in Nevada should be something more than an existence, and that the good things to be had should be enjoyed. Politically, there were men like Wren, Daggett and others who had given of their time and money all that they could spare for the advancement and perpetuation of the principles in which they believed, looking forward to the day when the people might ask them to serve in position which they could acceptably fill, and which would satisfy the longings of a laudable ambition. All at once, when the silver lining appeared brightest, the California Mephistopheles is thrust upon the scene, and every man, woman and child in the State is expected to bow down and become a slave. Men who want a few dollars for their votes, men who think the "sack" omnipotent, men who curry favor and fawn upon the rich, men having no respect for themselves or anybody else, at once shout the praises of the rising sun, and deliver up their birthright for a mess of pottage, and at the same time denounce and decry the man or set of men who has the courage of his convictions and dares to give expression to his honest sentiments. The sentiment of the Republican voters of this State is against Mr. Stewart. Upon a popular vote he would not receive five hundred out of the sixty-five hundred. Nor has he or his friends dared to allow an expression of public sentiment, but upon every occasion have stifled all efforts to permit the Republicans of the State to indicate a choice. Had such an opportunity been offered, Stewart, figuratively speaking, would have been picked up by the nape of the neck and sent of the breeches and pitched back into Steve Gage's lap in the office corner of Fourth and Townsend streets, and could have been considered lucky, because he was not provided with a coat of tar and feathers. What the Legislature will do is another matter. The railroad companies have their tools there, the Sharon interest will have its friends there, Yerington and D. O. Mills are powers in the land, the "lobby" with devotees of the sack clinging around Wallace's neck, and other mischievous and mysterious forces will be at work to secure the Senatorial certificate for Mr. Stewart. With such an unholy condition of affairs what show has any other Republican in a caucus. What show has Wren or Daggett or any poor man might well be asked, but we believe now, just within two weeks of an election, when we hope and feel assured that the Legislature will be Republican by twelve or fifteen majority, that Stewart will be defeated, and that Wren or some other Republican will be elected, and that once and forever Nevada will assert its manhood, and declare positively and emphatically that men who pay her taxes and whose homes and interests are identified with the State shall control its politics.

In Washoe county there lived a young man who had the bee in his bonnet, and who thought that if it was possible to be struck by Senatorial lightning he was willing to devote the best years of his life to serving Nevada in the Senate of the United States, confident that between the years of 35 and 41, or 35 and 47, for this foolish boy dreamed, like all other foolish boys do, of a second term even before the first commenced, that he would labor faithfully and render an equivalent for the great honor he saw fit to seek. He knew that he had many warm friends, and some bitter enemies, but he really believed that a true expression of the voters would sanction his candidacy. He interfered in nothing except the Legislative part of the ticket, and for that, he prevailed upon Sheriff Emmitt, and three other good men to consent to serve Washoe in the Legislature if the people so desired, and had his colors won the day, Washoe would have had a Legislative delegation that would have been a credit to her. Mr. Powning's judgment may have been at fault, but he thought that the Republican voters of Washoe did not like Mr. Stewart, and that no ticket that would go into a caucus for delivery to Stewart, could run the gauntlet of the people's votes, and could he have had his way would have had a delegation against Stewart, but always ready to vote for any home Republican. The day prior to the Republican primaries Mr. Supt. Yerington came down from Carson in a special car, and Supt. Whited came up from Wadsworth. Mr. Stewart drove down from Carson, met Mr. Thompson at Huffakers, and then drove back again. At evening time Mr. Stewart came down from Carson on the train. By a strange coincidence Mr. Huntington arrived in Reno, and his special car was sidetracked here, as he desired to cross the Sierra by daylight, and calculated to leave for the Bay the next morning. It was about 2 o'clock that night that Mr. Stewart left Mr. Huntington's car. It was 6 in the morning when Mr. Huntington and Supt. Whited exchanged their mutual courtesies, and in a few minutes the men in the employ of the railroad company at Reno were politely notified to support the ticket against Mr. Powning, and known as the Boardman ticket. Mr. Whited returned to Wadsworth and over the wires that night came the magic figures of 61 to 6. The occasion was a pleasant one in Reno. A ticket was out headed for Boardman for Judge, and a large number who desired that Washoe should have a home man voted it, but we think quite a number voted it not knowing that if it carried it meant the success of Stewart and the defeat of Powning. It was noticeable during the contest that the better class of the community voted the so-called Powning ticket. It was also noticed that all the old drunks, including the stiff and pimps, and tramps, and Democrats who had no right to vote, and Beck and other Mugwumps of the past, not forgetting a lot of good citizens, voted the so-called Boardman ticket. When the ballots were counted out it was found that the county delegation portion of that ticket had about eight majority, with the exception of C. W. Jones who was defeated by S. M. Jamison, and not calculating upon the thirteen gentlemen who were upon both tickets. This shocked the foolish boy, who will likely yet learn that politics lead to vanity and vexation, but he picked his flint and tried again, and the following Thursday had an even show in the Convention, in fact had a majority, but one by one the weak ones were drawn off and he does not exactly know to this day how easily men can be changed. But Dan Earl came up from San Francisco, and Beck got a proxy. Whited was on hand and did his work well, and poor Donald McKay gave his proxy to the Supt., but he afterward rescinded it, and went to the Convention himself. F. McKee, chief clerk in the railroad office, had not the interest of the company sufficiently at heart to give up his proxy, but requested to do so, but acted for himself, correctly thinking that the hard clerical work he was doing ought to be in full for the salary he was receiving. Both sides pulled and hauled, but the ballot was taken and Emmitt, the friend of Powning, the efficient Sheriff, the active young man, the best and bravest single-handed rustler in the county, was downed, only receiving 20 votes, three delegates casting blanks, and 25 voting for Thompson, the gentleman who worked against the Republican ticket in 1874, taking the obligation of the Reform Club, who appeared before the Republican Convention of 1873 as a candidate for State Senator, was beaten, and openly bolted the regular nominee, Mr. Powning, and also opposed John H. Kinkaid, the nominee for Governor; the gentleman who acknowledged using $1,000 of Lake's money to palm off the Bowers Mansion for an Asylum or a Poor House, and who laughed from ear to ear at the session of 1879 when the bill for Reno was defeated. And we suppose this nomination was given us a reward of merit! We are glad it made Boardman happy, and hope that his cane and hat did not go through the roof of Armory Hall, but we fear that it did, because we did not see him bring them into use at the Carson Opera House. But that Convention, although declaring for a "home" man, knocked our pole and any sight of a persimmon, and made dough of the bread. But such is life in the far West, and nobody can blame us if we retire gracefully from the political field and devote our time and attention to making an honest living without the aid of political parties or patronage of office, and allow Beck and Thompson to save the country, metaphorically. They need not bother. The Republican party and ticket is all right. It has won without them, and it has such a force now that it will even carry the extra load. Let us have peace.

FRANK LESLIE'S SUNDAY MAGAZINE FOR NOVEMBER—Opens with the fourth of Mr. Powell's interesting "Leaves from My Life," dealing with the post-banker Samuel Rogers and the witty Douglas Jerrold. Among the elaborate illustrated articles is one entitled "The Still-vexed Bermoothes," in which a bright description of the Bermudas is accompanied by twelve scenes from the island. "Salem, Past and Present," shows us some scenes from the old town of witches, in Massachusetts. There is a sketch, with portrait, of Charles Villiers Stanford, a representative British composer; a view of the Cathedral of Thronbjorn, the northernmost cathedral in Europe; an article on De Pauw and view of the buildings; and many other interesting and fine illustrations. PARKER'S MAP OF NEVADA.

PARKER'S NEW MAP OF NEVADA.

—THIS NEW AND BEAUTIFUL—

MAP OF THE STATE,

Has Just Been Published, and is Now Ready for Sale.

It has been completed with great care in order to insure its being strictly correct, and furnishes a vast fund of valuable information regarding the topography of the State. There never has been a Map of the State prepared heretofore worthy of the name, and it is intended to fill a long-felt want on the part of citizens. It has been lithographed at large expense by the famous publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago, and does great credit to their well-known skill in the art. The Map is drawn on a scale of 12 miles to the inch, and shows all surveyed Townships up to date of issue, also all Mountain Ranges, Valleys, Rivers, Creeks, Brooks, Streams and Lakes; it also shows the correct position of all Indian and Military Reservations, and all Cities, Towns and Settlements; also all Railroads and the principal Wagon Roads. The County Boundaries are also depicted with absolute correctness, which is something that no other Map has even approximated to.

The Map is printed on the best of paper, and mounted with stick, top and bottom, with tape on edges and varnished; it is also printed on thin, strong paper, which folds up in stout covers for pocket form. The Counties are printed with different colors, making it altogether an ornament to any school house, office, saloon or private room, as well as valuable for instruction and reference.

The Map has been compiled by John W. Parker, the Chief Draughtsman of the United States Surveyor-General's Office at Reno, who holds the copyright, and is the condensation of all information on file in that office, as well as the celebrated War Department Maps prepared by Lieutenant Wheeler; he has also had at his command other recent and reliable data on which to rely, and the Map is issued to the public in the firm belief that it is in every way authentic.

The Price of the Map is $5.00, And copies will be sent to any address, postpaid, upon receipt of the money. Parties ordering will be careful to state which style is desired—mounted or pocket form.

John W. Parker,
Reno, Nevada.
